1. Beginning in July 1955, Yugoslav Army officers in groups of 70-80 were to be sent to all the Satellite countries to instruct at the military academies of the latter on the latest "western" military methods. In turn, military officials from Bulgaria, Rumania, Hungary and Czechoslovakia will go to Yugoslavia to attend training courses in Western military methods at the Yugoslav Military Academy. The Yugoslav instructors who are being sent to the Satellite countries received military training in recent years
